Njoud Mohammed

Associate — AlZouman Lawyers & Consultants

Njoud contributes across every stage of a matter, from initial strategy through to resolution. She manages cases, attends hearings, and drafts a full range of legal instruments, including statements of claim, case reports, and legal memoranda. She also prepares legal opinions and advice for clients, and represents clients in the enforcement of judgments and decisions before the Enforcement Court. Underpinning this work is a commitment to thorough legal research and sound analysis, together with a collaborative approach that has made her a trusted member of the team. Her diligence, attention to detail, and command of the issues consistently add value to the matters she handles.

Njoud holds a degree in Shari'ah from Imam Muhammad ibn Saud Islamic University and a Diploma in Law, and is licensed as a lawyer by the Ministry of Justice.
